Dear Ellis:

Thanks very much for your delightful letter of 19 December 1950. I too will certainly find it agreeable working with you when you get back to Washington. Needless to say, we miss you very much. Washington activity, if you will pardon an understatement, has increased in tempo.

I also want to acknowledge your [redacted] on plans for leave, travel, etc. Your plans are entirely satisfactory as it appears now. Please understand that I don't anticipate any emergency which would cause a change in them, but with things as they are it is just impossible to make plans more than 48 hours ahead. FOIAb3a

FOIAb3b Please give my best regards to [redacted] and we will look forward to seeing you in the spring.

Sincerely,

FOIAb3b [redacted]
